Once upon a time, nestled at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac called Jasmine Close, there stood a charming four-bedroom home. With its sun-dappled garden, and windows that gleamed like knowing eyes, the house has watched generations grow, laughter bloom, and dreams take flight. Though made of brick and timber, it was no ordinary dwelling—for those who crossed its threshold often found more than shelter; they found the beginning of their own happily ever after. With a drive fit for a horse and carriage and a garage for dark secrets, the entrance hall sat proudly welcoming memories with an abundance of light, flowing into the hallway with a tucked away guest cloakroom and crooked wooden door leading to storage fit for a mouse's tea party! The kitchen flows with endless wooden shaker style cupboards, integrated oven/hob followed by a utility room with space for washer and dryer, back to the hallway we go and to the heart of the home, the living room has an enchanted charm and is the perfect room for those magical memories flooded with sun from the bay window or cosy and warm memories from the electric fire, through sliding doors is a sunroom set out as a dining room that flows to the mystical garden. The first floor is fit for princes and princesses, a master bedroom awaits with fitted wardrobes and dressing table, followed by a further two double bedrooms and a final bedroom currently set out as a study, a family bathroom sits at the rear of the property with tub perfect for a bubble bath! The rear garden feels like a garden from a story-book hosting a patio seating area for sharing a tea and biscuits and whispered secrets, a velvet lawn with mature flower beds and a humming sound that hugs the garden from little flying friends that have made your garden their home! In the heart of the Staffordshire Moorlands, Blythe Bridge transforms into a fairytale village where modern comforts blend seamlessly with timeless charm, local amenities await along with a convenient walk to the Railway Station and commuter links to the A50. Just call JDP your fairy godmother, so do not wait book your fairytale viewing with our Cheadle office and your fairytale ending will come true.

Charming four bedroom home, enchanted garden, sunlit rooms, and fairytale vibe. Ideal for creating everlasting memories, Blythe Bridge location with modern comforts and quaint village charm.
