

5 Thorley Drive, Cheadle

£185,000 Freehold

Spacious 2-bed bungalow with two double-sized rooms, all on one level – ideal for ease and comfort • Church and Pugin's Gem views from the garden, lounge, and both bedrooms – everyday outlooks that uplift and inspire • Rear garden retreat with lawn, flower beds, mature trees, and a tucked-away second garden perfect for seating or planting. • Detached garage and driveway providing excellent parking and storage, plus low-maintenance front landscaping. • Flexible conservatory with power, currently used as a dining and utility space, opening onto the garden for indoor-outdoor flow.

Gracefully Grounded with a Heavenly View! This is what easy living looks like: everything on one level, a garden ready for planting, pottering, or simply sitting, and a timeless view of Pugin's Gem and the church beyond. A spacious and well-positioned two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow, set within walking distance of the popular market town of Cheadle. Step through the generous entrance hall into a large living room featuring an electric fire with surround, a storage cupboard, and views onto the rear garden. The kitchen is well-equipped with wood-effect cabinetry and laminate worktops, with space for a fridge-freezer. It leads directly into a versatile conservatory with power - currently used as both a dining and utility area - offering garden access and year-round flexibility. Two double bedrooms enjoy elevated views of the church and the iconic Pugin's Gem. The principal bedroom includes fitted wardrobes, while the second room offers a further double-sized room. The bathroom includes a bath, WC, and washbasin. Outside, the home features a generous paved driveway, a detached single garage with up-and-over door, and a charming front garden with mature shrubs. To the rear, a tranquil lawned garden is framed by trees, flowers, and a paved area ideal for outdoor dining - plus a hidden second garden space offering a peaceful escape or creative potential. Rooted in charm, elevated by its view - this is single-storey living at its most rewarding. A home to settle into, savour, and make your own.

Spacious two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow in the popular Cheadle market town. Large living room, two double bedrooms. Generous driveway, detached garage, tranquil rear garden.
