

55 Victor Street, Stone

£200,000 Freehold

The high ceilings throughout give such a sense of space and that unmistakable Victorian charm. • The bathroom feels like a boutique hotel with its roll-top bath and large shower cubicle. • The cosy front lounge and dining room flow perfectly, making it ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. • The cobbled courtyard is a gorgeous little spot for morning coffee, leading to a private garden. • The location is spot on, with Stone's shops, cafés, and farmers' market all just a stroll away.

Viva La Victorian on Victor Street! Step into style with this utterly charming two-bedroom mid-terrace, where classic Victorian character meets a full modern revamp. The current owners have lovingly redesigned the home from top to toe, creating a space that feels both fresh and timeless. A high-ceilinged hallway sets the tone, leading you into a warm and inviting front living room, perfect for cosy nights in. The second reception, now a dining room, flows beautifully with garden views before reaching the kitchen. Here you'll find smart storage under the stairs, revamped cupboards, and access to the prettiest cobbled courtyard. Upstairs, two brilliant double bedrooms await: the main at the front and a second overlooking the garden. The show-stopping bathroom has been fully renovated, complete with a gorgeous roll-top bath and a generous shower cubicle, adding a touch of luxury to everyday life. Throughout, you'll find fresh décor, new flooring, high ceilings, and that unmistakable Victorian elegance. Outside, enjoy morning coffee in the courtyard before strolling further to the rear garden with patio and low-maintenance artificial lawn. Shared access leads back to the street. All this, in a superb spot within walking distance of Stone's vibrant shops, cafés, restaurants, and monthly farmers' market, not to mention excellent commuter links. So, if you're ready to live your very best life in true Victorian style, give us a call today and arrange your viewing!
