£400,000 Freehold

Shiny and new, a complete renovation throughout making for a complete turnkey property. • Three spacious bedrooms, one sporting an ensuite shower room. • A versatile fourth room thanks to the attic conversion. A large space with a concealed stairway. • Two crisp tarmac driveways with a garage for ample parking. • In Cheadle, you'll enjoy the convenience of supermarkets, shops, and eateries and on your doorstep, scenic countryside routes lead you toward Oakamoor, Dimmingsdale, and the Hawksmoor Nature Reserve.

“So shine bright, tonight, you and I, we’re beautiful like diamonds in the sky” And this three-bedroom bungalow? It’s a true gem! Fully turnkey and finished to perfection, this pristine home shines with a modern, crisp aesthetic, like a diamond cut from the rough. Recently renovated from top to bottom, it stands proudly a cut above the rest. Nestled in the charming market town of Cheadle, you’ll enjoy the convenience of supermarkets, shops, and eateries, all while benefiting from the warmth of a close-knit community. On your doorstep, scenic countryside routes lead you toward Oakamoor, Dimmingsdale, and the Hawksmoor Nature Reserve, perfect for peaceful walks and weekend wanderings. Step inside and you’re welcomed by the heart of the home, a beautifully designed kitchen. Matte grey shaker cabinets pair elegantly with a black marble-effect worktop, complemented by integrated appliances and clever storage solutions. An apex ceiling lined with spotlights and skylights floods the room with light, while glazed patio doors open onto the rear garden, creating a modern and airy space. The lounge is spacious and inviting, complete with a cosy electric fireplace and a generous bay window, the ideal spot to sit back and watch the world go by. This standout bungalow features three double bedrooms, including one with a stylish ensuite fitted with a Bluetooth LED mirror and easy-clean tiled panels. The family bathroom matches the same elevated finish, offering a shower-over-bath combination, a feature tile wall, spotlights, and another Bluetooth LED mirror. But there’s more, a discreet staircase leads to a neatly finished attic conversion. Brightened by two skylights, this large, versatile space offers endless possibilities, with an additional door providing easy access to the boiler room. Outside, the low-maintenance Indian stone garden is perfect for alfresco dining. At the front, a beautifully tarmac driveway framed by mature shrubs and a dry-stone wall offers ample parking. A second tarmac drive leads to a garage with an electric door, making coming and going a breeze. Think this sparkling bungalow could be the one? Book your viewing today, you won’t be disappointed.
